2. [REDACTED] Chief of Station, [REDACTED] was in for a visit. He said that their living and working conditions were greatly improved over what they were when I visited [REDACTED] about three years ago and that they had no support problems that needed our attention. His entire administrative staff consists of one administrative officer Finan

4. [REDACTED] telephoned to say that they had received a cable from [REDACTED] in which he complained that he had not heard definitely about [REDACTED] assignment. I concurred by telephone in a cable which Bob proposed to send telling John that George would be assigned as Chief of Base, [REDACTED] after his home leave.
